BELLEVUE RESIDENTS TO HOST USD RECEPTION

The sixth annual reception for parents of students at the University of San Diego will be hosted on July 21 by Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis at their Bellevue home. The Davises are parents of Michael Davis, a junior at the independent Roman Catholic institution in San Diego.

USD students from the Seattle area will also be present to hear Dr. Author E. Hughes, president of the University, and will be the guests of Mike Davis at a swim party on July 22 at the Ogden resident, Mercer Island.

Thursday's reception is scheduled for 7 p.m. The swim party, including water sports, will begin at 1 p.m.

Also present at the reception will be Dr. William L. Pickett, USD Vice President for University Relations; Sister Virginia McMonagle, RSCJ, Director of Parent Relations; and Sister Helen Lorch, RSCJ, Assistant Professor of History.

The University of San Diego enrolls some 5,000 students in its College of Arts and Sciences, School of Graduate and Continuing Education, and professional schools in business, education, law, and nursing.
